

Workwear Service for Food Industry

We provide solutions for corporate clothing and support your company's image by textiles, cleanliness, and safety measures.

Our comprehensive Workwear Service offers and allows you to focus on the most important - your core business.

Hygienic and comfortable workware are an important factor in the food sector

We take care of for you, that your employees have always access to enough clean and tidy garments. Workwear Rental Service covers workwear maintenance, repair and replacement automatically, and thus avoid unnecessary procurement and stocking of these procedures. As our customer, you can be confident that your workwear are washed according the highest hygiene regulations. Our goal is to ensure our customers' production efficiency and safety and security.

FoodInPro collection fills the food safety requirements that apply to both the employee and the protection of the work. We have especially paid attention to the design of garments to the materials and placement of pockets and comfort - not forgetting the high hygiene requirements.

We offer a wide range of professional garments - shirts, jackets, pants, aprons and hats - which are easy to put together a coherent and workable workwear solution for all employees.

Our service includes

- In-depth analysis of customer's needs
 - Design and procurement of workwear collection
 - Fitting and size modifications
 - Personal individually marked garments
 - Washing, finishing and quality control
 - Repair and replacement
 - Delivery of clean workwear, locker service and pick up of used workwear
 - Storage and final disposal
-
- Flexible and affordable rental service makes our customers life easier and promote customers satisfaction.

5/2014