

Workwear Service for HoReCa sector

We provide solutions for corporate clothing and support your company's image by textiles, cleanliness, and safety measures.

Our comprehensive Workwear Service offers and allows you to focus on the most important - Customer service.

Clean and good-looking garments are an important factor in corporate identity, occupational health and safety, and job satisfaction

We take care of for you, that the staff have always access to enough clean and tidy garments. Workwear rental service covers workwear maintenance, repair and replacement automatically, and thus avoid unnecessary procurement and stocking of these procedures. Our service adapts quickly to the changed situations, such as during the seasons in which the number of employees may change or when employee leaves.

HoReCaPro collection is for a variety of restaurant and catering kitchens, and service personnel needs. We offer a wide range of professional garments - shirts, tunics, chef coats, pants and hoodies - which is easy to put together a coherent workwear solution the entire staff. We have paid attention to the design of garments appearance, practicality, fit and ease of movement as well as the details of the functionality.

Our service includes

- In-depth analysis of customer's needs
 - Design and procurement of workwear collection
 - Fitting and size modifications
 - Personal individually marked garments
 - Washing, finishing and quality control
 - Repair and replacement
 - Delivery of clean workwear, locker service and pick up of used workwear
 - Storage and final disposal
- Flexible and affordable rental service makes restaurant's daily life easier and promote customers satisfaction.

4/2014